LIFETIME LEARNER REGISTRATION AUDIT POLICY

Auditing a course allows Lifetime Learners the opportunity to attend a course without earning either a grade or credit for the class.

1. Lifetime Learners are defined as being Utah residents, 62 years of age or older, and non-degree seeking.
2. Lifetime Learners registering to audit a class will pay $10 and any course related fees per the current fee schedule.
3. Some courses may not be open to audit Lifetime Learners because of classroom space limitations.
4. Lifetime Learners are to seek both instructor(s) and departmental approval on the first day of class to audit a course. For waitlisted courses, forms will not be accepted until the second week of the semester, the 6th business day of the semester, once the waitlist period has ended.
5. Lifetime Learners auditing courses are expected to attend on a regular basis. Lifetime Learners may officially withdraw from an audited class according to the deadline defined in the Academic Calendar. Lifetime Learners failing to attend class may be issued a "W" grade at the discretion of the instructor.
