LIFELONG LEARNER REGISTRATION AUDIT POLICY

Auditing a course allows Lifelong Learners the opportunity to attend course(s) without earning a grade or credit for the class.

1. Lifelong Learners are defined as being Utah residents, 62 years of age or older, and non-degree seeking.
2. Lifelong Learners registering to audit a class will pay $10 per semester and are responsible for any course-related fees per the current fee schedule.
3. Some courses may not be open to audit Lifetime Learners because of classroom space limitations. Graduate courses are not eligible for the Lifelong Learner program.
4. Lifelong Learners are to seek both instructor(s) and departmental approval during the second week of class to audit a course.
5. Lifelong Learners auditing courses are expected to attend on a regular basis. Lifelong Learners may officially withdraw from an audited class according to the deadline defined by the Academic Calendar. Lifelong Learners that fail to attend class may be issued a "W" grade at the discretion of the instructor
6. Lifelong Learners are not eligible for Wildcards (WSU student ID cards) which provide access to most campus services and facilities such as the Swenson Gym, Health Center, etc.
